A Letter to Jason

Hello Jason,

Hi, I am fine What about you?

You just gave me a pleasant surprise. I am so excited to be seeing you in February. Sure I will tell you a lot of things about Hong Kong.

In February, the weather over here is very cold so I recommend you to bring warm clothes like sweaters, jackets and some warm shirts and pants. It is true that a lot of people around the world say that Hong Kong is a fun place to shop, so they call it a shopper's paradise. I think in Mong Kok, there are cheap things to buy. The place is called Mong Kok night market. It is a nice place for shopping. In Hong Kong there's a theme park called Ocean Park. In Ocean Park, we could go on the rides like Roller coaster, water rides and even some more interesting rides that you surely would enjoy. There is also some yummy food to eat. At night, there is a firework show before we leave the theme park. And in Hong Kong, people often travel around by buses and taxis but most of them use the trains to get to other places.

I wish you really liked my email about Hong Kong. I also miss you a lot. I can't wait to see you soon!

Your cousin,

Chris
