

Just the Way you are

Amy and David were classmates. They had feelings for each other but they kept it to themselves. They were too scared to tell each other thinking one will reject the other. Finally David mastered his courage and asked her out to the cinema. Excitedly Amy said yes. It got silent and awkward the whole day.

Next day, Amy was really nervous because she didn't know what to wear. She called her friend on the mobile phone asking what to do. Her friend told her to take a look at a boutique named 'Fashion House'. And so she did. She bought a trendy outfit thinking it would catch David's attention. She also thought of going to a hair salon and get hair cut to look different.

Finally on Saturday, the day after the parents' Day, Amy got ready and called David at a park near the movie theatre. David immediately came after she called. He was really surprised when he saw Amy. David's surprised expression made Amy realize she had over done her hair, make-up and her clothes. She said to David 'Oh, my God! I'm sorry I'm surprised you don't like this. I just didn't know what to do! I was really nervous and... and... and....' David smiled and patted her head and said, 'Honestly, you did overdo your hair, clothes and make-up. But! No matter what, make up or no make-up, stylish or not stylish, you will always be you. You are beautiful just the way you are and I like you just the way you are.'

David then held her hand. Amy was really glad that she said yes to him. Amy happily hugged him and said 'I'm glad and happy to have you.' They went to the cinema together. They maintained an intimate relationship ever after.

Be Yourself. Love yourself. You won't know who likes you if you won't be yourself. Instead, you will be ignored and unnoticed.
