Bookshop

One sunny day, my friend, Natasha and I decided to go to the Bookshop to buy some books for the exam. It was a very interesting place to study in, so we decided to study in the Bookshop. There were many books! We were looking around and I saw this book that caught my eye, it was by James Patterson, one of my favourite authors! Natasha found a book too and it was called 'Confessions of a Shopaholic' by Sophie Kinsena.

We spent hours in the Bookshop and we decided to buy the books so we went to the cashier to pay for our books. Suddenly, I could not find my wallet! I kept looking around my bag trying to be positive about everything but I could not find it. I got worried suddenly. Natasha asked, "What happened?"

I told her I could not find my wallet. The cashier said to us, "If you do not have money, then GET OUT!"

We were mortified, so we left. Suddenly, both of us got suspicious. We were thinking, what if he took the wallet? So we sent to the Bookshop at night. When no was there, my friend and I went to the cashier table and found my wallet! We were thinking, why would he steal my wallet? We opened the cashier and found diamonds, rubies, gold watches, and a lot of expensive accessories. Both of us were shocked and we decided to call the police.

As we were about to call, we heard someone opening the door. We hid under the cashier table and we heard someone talking. They were talking about stealing more accessories. Natasha got scared so both of us called the police. The robbers caught us! was the cashier man and his wife! Both Natasha and I ran out of the Bookshop and the police.

The police thanked us for catching the 'Most Wanted Criminals' and now, we're famous!
